Info Booklet

WELCOME TO THE ANARCHIST BOOK FAIR AMSTERDAM

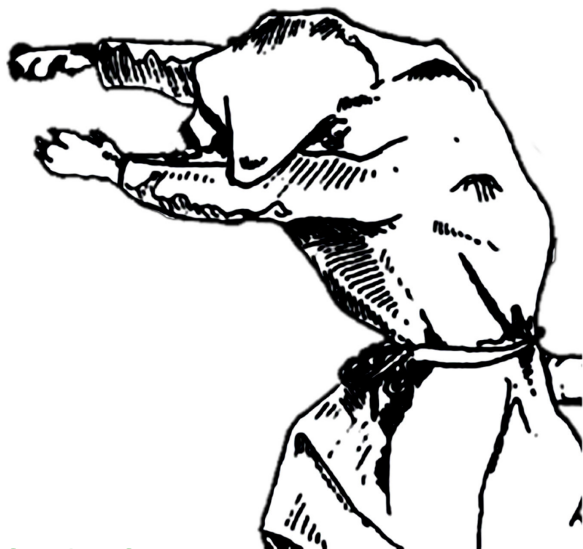

We're very excited to have you here during the weekend and hope you have a wonderful time! In this booklet you will find as much information as we could fit about food, stands, workshops and you will find two maps one of the Dokhuis and a map where you can find the other buildings.

We want to ask if you can, to donate to the book fair. After we have covered our own costs, we will give any extra we have to anarchist projects in Ukraine, Belarus and Indonesia.

Please give generously, so we can form a front against fascism and imperialism abroad, while we try to lay some of the foundations for a better world together during this weekend!

We hope you enjoy and find extra strength in the coming days to continue your own struggle against capitalism, the state and any form of oppression!

With solidarity,
ABFA

WHERE WILL EVERYTHING TAKE PLACE?

This year we will have workshops in 3 locations. We will have two spaces for workshops at the Dokhuis where all the stands are as well. (Plantage Doklaan 8)

Most of our workshop will be at the “Wereldhuis” (Nieuwe Herengracht 18) And some of the workshops will be at the “Rapenburg” (Rapenburg 51)

For more info see the bookfair’s floor plan (pages 3 and 4) and the bookfair’s map (pages 15 and 16)!

NO PHOTOS

Don't take pictures or videos of people without their consent. We work with an opt-in system. See someone with a smiley sticker? They are okay with their picture taken. Otherwise it's never fine. Also mind people in the background. It's also not okay to take them for your collection. Or if you just send them to your mom.

FOOD

We'll be serving food again on both days! Throughout both days various snacks will be available. We'll be serving a hot meal from around 18-19h on both days. Stick around and have a lovely meal with your friends, comrades and all the anarchists you met during the weekend! All the food is vegan. If you have allergies or requests, please come and talk to us beforehand.

A SAFE SPACE

We all want to have a nice experience at the anarchist book fair, with lots of fun and interesting conversations about anarchism and stuff. This becomes difficult if we have to deal with the behaviour and language of others at the book fair. We have to deal with it because we don't simply leave society's baggage at the door. We always carry this baggage around, even when we enter anarchist spaces. Fortunately, we can minimise the effect by proactively challenging people who engage in such behaviour. We can also minimise it by not engaging in oppressive behaviour ourselves.

If you feel safe to call people out, you are encouraged to do so in a way that you feel suits the situation. But please remember that you also had to Google ableism the first time you heard the term. We all have to learn some day.

Should you be called out for your behaviour, try to respond with sympathy and respect to the affected people and use the opportunity to learn something new. We all have the responsibility to educate ourselves; whatever the topic, there probably is a zine and a book somewhere at the fair. Suffice to say, anarchists are against all hierarchy and oppression. Which includes, but is not necessarily limited to, oppression based on (perceived) gender, race, ethnicity, sexuality, ability, and class.

Since we are all about prefigurative politics. We don't want to have these oppressions reproduced and perpetuated at our book fair. There isn't a special group at the fair set up specifically to resolve conflicts and other issues. But if we can live up to our ideals and do it ourselves perhaps we won't need one. If however that doesn't work out, or you don't know what to do, you can always ask someone at the info stand at the entrance for help.

THE WORKSHOPS

Supporting each other: strong reactions

Support & Recovery

ENG

Saturday 22/11
12:00-14.00
Dokhuis,
Wisdom Grove

One of the most amazing things about activists is that we often expose ourselves deliberately to danger, violence or repression if we think it's necessary. We should be prepared to support each other when dealing with mental and emotional consequences of these high-stress experiences. This workshop offers info & tools for us to do that.

We will cover:

- What are strong reactions? (panic attack/dissociation/rage)
- How to recognize different stages of strong reactions?
- How to support each other through strong reactions?
- Making a support plan (bring a notebook!)

Arrestantengroep

Saturday 22/11
14:00-16.00

Any action or demonstration carries the risk of arrest. In this workshop we want to provide tools and experiences in how to prepare for this. We will do an interrogation training, explain practicalities and your rights, and answer questions concerning arrest and consequences of participating in an action or demo.

De Arrestantengroep is a group of people focused on preparation & assist during and after actions to empower people as much as we can. To help those in the movement be as resilient as possible in the face of state repression.

SOME ANARCHIST PERSPECTIVES ON SEX WORK

Projet-Evasions

Saturday 22/11
14:00-16.00
Dokhuis,
Wisdom Grove

This workshop presents various considerations and ideas about what connects anarchism with sex work, as well as an anarchist perspective on the current sex work debate. An important aspect of this is a clear focus on the perspective and self-determination of sex workers.

The presentation is based on the work of Projet-Evasions, a network of anarchist friends in which several people are also sex workers and work in very different repressive contexts (from legal work to illegal work with prison risk)

A documentary about Ukrainian resistance

Pin only hostility

"Pin only" hostility

Saturday 22/11
15:00-16.00
Rapenburg

More places in hospitality/ other sectors do not accept CASH anymore. They claim that pin-only is safer and more 'easy'.

What are the effects of the PIN-only policies?

Who is benefitting and who cannot pay anymore?

Who is surveilled, and can afford to be surveilled?

We will discuss the topic of pin-only within hospitality practices. How is pin-only hostile? We will work on counter tactics on how we can challenge the trend of a cashless society . Participants will be encouraged to counter pin-only practices, either by joining in our structure, or by developing their own (local) structure to fight pin-only

Left-wing movement from scratch:

Political repressions in Latvia

Maiznica collective

Saturday 22/11
16.00-17.00
Rapenburg

How it is to assemble and organise in a hostile anti-communist environment, where both the state and the public are against you by default. Latvian left-wing discourse and movements were buried by the soviet union, crisis and repression, thus our collective had to start from scratch. Having already been through repression, eviction, bans and a deportation, we would like to share our story, giving more context about Latvia and discussing the strategy with the comrades at the fair.

Selling prisoners like it's 1991

Anarchist Black Cross Belarus

Saturday 22/11
16:00-18.00
Dokhuis,
Skill Forge

Since 2020 thousands of people went through prisons of belarusian regime. At this point over 25 anarchists and antifascists still remain captured with total over 1200 political prisoners. In 2025 Trump managed to make a deal with regime of Lukashenko to release some of the prisoners.

At the presentation we will talk about how the prisoners became a currency in political games in Eastern Europe, what are the consequences for the region and for the anarchists and will everyone be released in nearest future?

Antifascism - a workshop

Antifa Amsterdam

Saturday 22/11
16:00-17.00
Dokuis,
Wisdom Grove

In this workshop we're going to discuss the emergence and the danger of DefendNL and 'street' fascism in general. About the reaction of politicians, the 'antifa' motion, and what we did when DefendNL came to march in Amsterdam and why. Not only the demo at JDM-square, but also explicitly the importance of diversity of tactics that day (and always) and confronting fascism in the streets. We want to discuss how we can organise against these forms of fascism and work to keep our allies safe.

Lights, camera, direct action!
subMedia

ENG

Saturday 22/11
16.00-18.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 5

For more than two decades, subMedia has been cranking out a torrent of short films, full-length documentaries, news & analysis, video essays, calls to action, fundraisers, and riotporn mashups. Its distinct brand of low-budget propaganda has been consumed by countless anarchists and discerning anti-authoritarians online, and projected onto theatre screens and dirty bed sheets in numerous countries around the world.

In this interactive workshop, we'll explore a brief history of the project, screen a few of our favourite clips, and provide some practical tips and tricks for those hoping to start their own DIY anarchist video production crew.

Counterinsurgency - control of activism
Bullitt D Bourbon

ENG

Saturday 22/11
16:00-18.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 2 voor

It is extensively deployed in NATO countries, although present principles were researched and developed in the US. Building a Mutual Aid Kitchen in Enschede: sharing a success story
Mutual Aid Kitchen Enschede

Saturday 22/11
17:00-18.00
Dokhuis,
Wisdom Grove

In 6 months, we built one of the biggest mutual aid kitchens in the Netherlands feeding 30-60 people every other week and organising various events. The people coming to our space are not only from the activist bubble but from all sorts of communities. Our events have led to various follow up actions such as the creation of an Antifa group in Enschede. We would like to share the lessons we learned in the process with everyone who would like to build a mutual aid kitchen outside of Randstad or incorporate our learnings into their praxis. The Presentation is followed by a workshop.

Labour Rights Pamphlet Presentation
AGA

Saturday 22/11
18:00-19.00
Dokhuis,
Skill Forge

As the Anarchistische Groep Amsterdam (AGA), we are glad to announce a new version of our labour right pamphlet, our small contribution in the fight against capitalism and towards anarchy. This pamphlet started in 2014 with basic information regarding Dutch labour law, and how to organize at work. It was updated again in 2020, with more extensive labour law information, which is partially outdated today. So we decided to refresh it, and go further and change the structure.

From Texas to Amsterdam

Space City Anarchist Federation

ENG

Saturday 22/11
17.00-19.00
Rapenburg

Comrades from Space City Anarchist Federation will give a brief overview and background of what anarchist action looks like in the landscape of Houston, Texas, followed by an open discussion of international differences in organizing. How does public infrastructure, state repression, and culture affect our struggle? What can we learn from our comrades abroad, why and how can we provide international solidarity?

Common Language: film screening and Q&A group 7 x the community of squatted Prosfygika

ENG

Saturday 22/11
18:00-19.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 5

At squatted Prosfygika, solidarity drives collective work that is resistance in itself. Glimpses of community life show a living organism of interconnected structures which imagine alternative ways of building common futures.

The screening of the short film Common Language is followed by a q&a with comrades from Prosfygika and one of the directors.

A look at Belgium's deportation centers:
Projection + Discussion on border violence and solidarity

From Afar

Saturday 22/11
18:00-19.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 2 voor

Description of the film:

Observation of landscapes and architectures surrounding the six deportation centers of Belgium combined with testimonies of imprisoned people raises questions about the limited perception that the Belgian government allows one to have of its violent border and immigration policies.

(A) in Greece: Resistance reports 2018–2025
Comrade from Greece/
Anarchist Group Amsterdam

Sunday 23/11
12:00-14.00
Dokhuis,
Skill Forge

This talk gives a brief overview of state repression in Greece following the fall of the Junta in 1974. Some of the presentation's focuses will be:

- The repression against the occupation of the Chemistry University in 1985.
- The anti-terrorist unit and laws that end revolutionary organizations.
- The insurrection of 2008 following the murder of Alexis Grigoriou.
- The squats for refugees. the immigration pogroms, detention centers.
- The COVID measures that gave the state complete control, up until the events of the uprising in Nea Smyrni and the hunger strike of Dimitris Koufontinas.

Anarchist Teachers Unite! Radical Sunday School

Sunday 23/11
12:00-14.00
Dokhuis,
Wisdom Grove

Many of us anarchists became teachers out of a deep love for freedom. We can feel the liberating potential of education – to give people the power to think, to hope, and to resist oppression. Yet, most of us still have to work in educational systems that are anything but liberating. These systems work everyday to enforce the status-quo – using all sorts of methods to control and regulate people.

How can we anarchist teachers cope with this? How can we fight these systems from within? Let us (aspiring) teachers unite! Let's explore how to establish anarchy in our classrooms!

A new concept of digital library Anarchist Libraries network

Sunday 23/11
12.00-14.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 2 achter

Anarchist Libraries Network is a new digital library project aimed at promoting the publication and preservation of anarchist texts.

During the workshop, we will talk about the motivations that led to the creation of the project. The goal of this project, similarly to that of AmuseWiki, is to contribute to the maintenance of libraries and the reprinting of anarchist texts.

We will also look at some of the software's most interesting features and how to contribute by sharing your own collections, working on metadata and software development, or providing access from a physical location to the complete archive of texts.

A safer scene: Transforming masculinity

Patriarkraakt and other transformative masculinity groups

ENG

Sunday 23/11
12:00-14.00
Rapenburg

We're different groups of men and people that internalized masculinities that work to transform masculinity. We do this, among other things, to create a safer scene, promote healthier social relations, contribute to limiting genderbased violence and gender inequalities, living more in line with anarchist values and offer healthier being for people that have internalized masculinity.

The session is open to all genders, but we explicitly invite men and people who have internalized masculinity that want to work on themselves.

Defendant solidarity in Bristol

Bristol Defendant Solidarity

Sunday 23/11
13:00-14.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 5

This workshop will discuss defendant solidarity and anti-repression organising in Bristol, UK. For the last 15 years, BDS have directly supported arrested comrades, and worked with other organisations to support prisoners and protesters.

The session will focus on the support that BDS (working with Bristol ABC) offered after the Kill the Bill uprisings in 2021 - after which 80+ were arrested and 30+ imprisoned - as well as more recent Palestine solidarity and anti-fascist support.

We hope this can also be a skillshare, and we can learn together from different contexts.

Vrije bond: het is tijd voor anarcho-populisme

Vrije Bond

Sunday 23/11
14.00-16.00
Dokhuis,
Skill Forge

“Om daadwerkelijk dingen te bereiken als beweging moeten wij een bredere groep mensen uit de werkende klasse aanspreken. Het is tijd voor ons om de straat op te gaan en samen met alledaagse mensen actie te voeren. Alleen zo kunnen we winnen!”

In deze workshop gaan wij het hebben over hoe en waarom anarcho-populisme werkt en hoe je dit het beste in jouw lokale context kan inzetten.

Brainstormen over antifascistische strategieën

Joya en Elias,
autonome antifascisten

Sunday 23/11
14:00-16.00
Dokhuis,
Wisdom Grove

De afgelopen maanden en jaren hebben we een escalatie gezien van fascistische, racistische en autoritair rechtse propaganda en geweld. Voor ons is antifascistische actie een logische reactie van zelfverdediging en solidariteit. Maar hoe? We hebben niet meer alleen te maken met kleine groepjes neonazis of extreemrechtse splinter groepjes, maar met mainstream media en politiek die verrechtst is. En fascisme gaat niet zomaar weg. In deze workshop zullen we samen in gesprek gaan over hoe antifascisme er in deze tijd uit kan zien, door met elkaar te brainstormen over tactieken. Op die manier hopen we met elkaar ideeën te zaaien en gedachten te delen ter inspiratie voor een strijd waarin we elkaar nodig gaan hebben.

How to defend yourself during a police interrogation

Projet Evasions

Sunday 23/11
14.00-16.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 5

An interrogation is not a harmonious exchange between two individuals. It's a conflict. And in this conflict, our ignorance is our strength. Ignorance of the meaning of police work, ignorance of the manipulative techniques used, ignorance of the legal framework and, last but not least, ignorance of our means of defence. In response to this observation, we created a book, now translated in many languages. This book is intended as a tool for self-defense against police interrogation practices of interrogation.

Art for Autonomy (Performance)
Amsterdam BANGS

BANGS

Sunday 23/11
14:00-16.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 2 voor

In this workshop, the organisers of Amsterdam BANGS discuss the creation of the BANGS festival, a yearly autonomous performance festival taking place wherever you want it to take place, all over Amsterdam.

We will hold a discussion on the realities of making (performance) art while being tied to public and private funding, as well as discuss the promises and challenges of crafting autonomous webs and structures of support for free art.

Living without a phone
Bullitt D Bourbon

BANGS

Sunday 23/11
14.00-16.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 2 achter

Our information technology is inherently colonialist, destructive, and unecological. Living without a phone is a tangible step toward disengaging from the cycle of violent destruction and protecting one's own health. We discuss how it can be done. There is a zine project about this subject by a bunch of people in France and me; folks at the festival are welcome to join.

Anti war Résistance in Russia

Fires of Freedom

Sunday 23/11
15:00-17.00
Rapenburg

Russia has never stopped politically motivated persecution of anarchists, but last years under Putin's regime, repression has reached a new level. The war against Ukraine and the 2022 laws have resulted in some 22 anarchists and anti-fascists behind bars today - and that's only those known to be behind bars. Some of them are accused of "creating a terrorist organization" or "preparing a terrorist attack."

We refuse to follow the liberal opposition and belittle the determination of our comrades. On the contrary, we consider it our duty to support those who dared to fight Putin's regime with radical methods.

Liminal Spaces Between Empires

Sose Norshen

Sunday 23/11
16:00-18.00
Dokhuis,
Skill Forge

"We were peaceful like our mountains,
You invaded like savage storms."
- Hovhannes Shiraz

Since the devastating war of 2020 and the ethnic cleansing of Artsakh (Nagorno Karabakh) in 2023, things took an alarming turn for Armenia and its vast diaspora. Stuck between a rock and a hard place, fed empty promises by the West, Russia, and local corrupt elites, Armenian struggles are left forgotten in the peripheries of multiple empires.

How do "unpopular wars" fit in international liberation movement? Can Armenia be saved through leftist organising? And how do we decolonise our decolonialism? Join us to learn, talk, and connect.

Unlearning Urgency Culture

Disabled Anonymous Duo

Sunday 23/11
16:00-18.00
Dokhuis,
Wisdom Grove

Urgency culture can make us work too hard, can make us stop feeling and thinking through about what we do in times of crisis. In organising this can lead to burn out, conflicts, strategies not working and not getting the results of change we desperately need. In this interactive workshop we will look at what we can learn from disabled people through crip skills. What can we learn from people who are not able to participate in urgency culture? How do we unlearn urgency culture together? What do we gain when we make space to feel and strategize calmly again?

It's Revolution or Death subMedia

Sunday 23/11
16.00-18.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 5

It's Revolution or Death is a three-part video series imagined by anarchist author Peter Gelderloos and brought to life by the anarchist video collective subMedia. The series exposes the myths perpetuated by states and green-washing corporations, shines a light on movements around the world resisting ecocidal industrial capitalist projects, and provides viewers with a framework for fighting back and getting prepared for the climate crisis in their own communities.

Members of subMedia will be on hand to screen the three-part series. This screening will be followed by a discussion about climate change, and organizing to build communities of transformative survival.

Exploring Relationship Anarchy Social Disco

ENG

Sunday 23/11
16:00-18.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 2 voor

We will explore the theoretical and practical sides of relationship anarchy. The facilitators will speak from personal experience about their understanding of RA. Afterwards, we engage the participants in an exploration of the subject, through structured and unstructured dialogue. The participants are welcome and encouraged to co-create the discussion and guide it through their own understanding of the topic, their curiosity and their enthusiasm.

Sociology and Anarchy on Anti-Speciesism Blueberry

ENG

Sunday 23/11
16.00-18.00
Wereldhuis,
Kelder 2 achter

Are you anarchist? Is fighting hierarchy important to you? Are you anti-speciesist?

If you answered: “Yes, yes, no” I invite you to come and think about the importance of anti-speciesism, and not just where non-humans are considered.

We will take a sociological look at the connections between speciesism, other prejudices, and hierarchy in general. I'll present two main sociological models that outline how inseparable these are. Building on this will be an anarchist argument for the necessity of anti-speciesism as a crucial part of fighting all hierarchies jointly in order to have real, lasting success in all of our movements.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is no text or other markings on the paper.
